HUNTING AREA Cairngorm

The hunting areas is located in the Cairngorm mountains in the heart of Scotland.

The stalking takes place on various estates most of which are within a 20 minute drive of Kingussie. All red deer are completely wild and are located on open moorland and mountainous terrain. The challenge of stalking over various types of terrain to achieve the final goal of having a stag within your sights lures many guests to us year after year.

The terrain can be extremely steep and very challenging, but all hunts can be tailored according to the hunters physical abilities and wishes.

A Typical Day

You will be met by your stalker, usually around 0900 hours.

Upon commencement of the hunt you will be accompanied at all times by an experienced stalker and occasionally a ghille.

When the deer are located your stalker will select a stag that, in his opinion, is suitable to be culled. At this point you and your stalker begin your final approach, this will usually involve crawling on the ground in order to avoid detection by the stag.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised, Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails -and a questionable foreign seller, really is.
